Cinematic Chapter

By Malcolm Miller

Hello everybody! The Joel McCrea motion picture career was originally planned as a means to an end—owning his own cattle ranch. Born in the shadows of Hollywood's film studios, McCrea as a child played on vacant lots which have since become sites of important producing companies. At the age of nine when his idol was William S. Hart, he decided to become a rancher. With the heritage of one grandfather who came West in a covered wagon and another who fought Apaches and drove stagecoaches, such an ambition was not considered unusual by his family. As he began early ranching apprenticeship, young Joel picked up pocket-money working as an extra in Hollywood Westerns. It was when he realized how much it would cost to buy a ranch that he took up dramatics at college and set his sights on becoming a full-fledged. His training on the ranch brought him a pair of unique assignments in pictures, doubling for Greta Garbo and Marion Davis. In "The Torrent" he doubled for Greta on horseback at the rate of $15 a day. He again wore feminine garb to drive a buckboard in the guise of Miss Davies in another picture. For the effort Miss Davies later presented him with a Stetson hat, which he still wears for good luck in most of his films. See you at the movies—Mal.

Willis - Sears

Mr. and Mrs. William Baldwin Willis of Whitehaven, Tenn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Narcissa, to Harrison Harlan Sears, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Harlan Sears of Canal Point, Florida. The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Robert H. Lee Willis and the late Mrs. Willis and the late Mr. and Mrs. John Calvin Gilbert, all of Waverly Hall, Ga.

Miss Willis was graduated from high school at Horn Lake, Miss., where she was a member of the Glee Club and on the staff of both her school paper and the school annual. She was chosen to represent her school as a delegate to the Y-Tenn Conference held at Gulf Park College, Long Beach, Miss. Miss Willis attended Siona College.

Mr. Sears is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Lamar Sears of Canal Point and of Mrs. Mary Leola Bullard and the late Samuel Bullard of Alamo, Ga. He was graduated from Pahokee High School, Pahokee, Fla. Mr. Sears received his B. A. Degree from Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., where he was active in the Glee Club, member of the "E" Club and International Relations Club. He was a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity. Mr. Sears is now a junior at the Southern College of Optometry, where he is a member of Omega Delta, optometric fraternity.

The wedding will be solemnized June 20 at Horn Lake Methodist Church.

Reddy Says Bell Long Distance Is Going To Be Better

New procedures to enable Pahokee telephone subscribers to receive even better and faster long distance service on calls not completed on the first attempt were announced here today by E. F. Reddy, District Manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

When the "called party" here is not available to talk on a long distance person-to-person call, the operator at the originating point of the call leaves her number, the number of the calling telephone and the calling party's name, if volunteered. This will continue to be done.

The changed procedure involves what will happen when the called party is ready to talk. At present, he contacts a Pahokee long distance operator, gives her the details of the call and she relays them to an operator in the distant city. Effective June 1, 1954, in order to provide faster service, the called party will give the operator here only the number of the operator in the distant city and, when the distant operator comes on the line, he should give her the details of the call. This means the operator here will not have to make a record of the call and can handle it faster.

The efficiency of modern telephone service is dependent upon the public's understanding how to use it best, said Mr. Reddy in urging cooperation with the new procedure.

Reddy also pointed out that since World War Two the number of telephones in Pahokee has also doubled. This larger volume of local usage also has resulted in much larger long distance usage. In order to meet these demands for fast and dependable long distance service, much new equipment has been installed here and in other exchanges—including coaxial cable, radio relay, carried systems and other facilities.

The large expenditure for additional long distance facilities, and improved operating procedure have enabled the telephone company to constantly provide faster and more dependable long distance service to more and more people, Mr. Reddy said.

Book Tells How To Retire In Florida

GAINESVILLE—The University of Florida Press recently released a book that should prove of extreme interest to oldsters who have retired in Florida and seek some means of supplementing their present income.

Rardin Dedicates James B. Jeffries Park, South Bay

County Commissioner Paul Rardin was chief speaker and made the dedicatory address Friday afternoon at the formal dedication of the James B. Jeffries Memorial Park of South Bay to the memory of James B. Jeffries, to whose untiring efforts much of the early work in the reclamation of the Everglades is due, and to the boys and girls of today—the men and women of tomorrow.

Rardin paid tribute to and extended thanks to the Hekscher Foundation for Children, whose president, Mrs. Arthur Smadbeck, of New York, had donated some $3,000 worth of playground equipment to the park for the children of the community. The Rosenwald School has also received and installed similar equipment from the same foundation on their school grounds in South Bay.

Rardin in dedicating the park gave a resume of the steps taken to secure and equip the park. Two lots owned by the county were dedicated to the project, five lots were purchased from Mrs. Lillian Jeffries by the City Council a number of years ago to add to the city and county owned lots. The Belle Glade Housing Authority purchased and dedicated a block of lots adjacent to the park site on which the soft ball park has been located. Emmett Roberts, also a guest, spoke briefly on this subject.

Tribute was also given to J. K. Baker, road supervisor who cleared the tract, made the necessary fill and planted the lawn; to the Lions Club, American Legion and Garden Club for their part in building the ball park and beautifying and landscaping the site. Palms and shrubbery were donated by J. A. Parker, S. J. Fisher, C. E. Crichtfield and members of the Garden Club.

The building housing a barbecue pit, plumbing installations and rest rooms with 10 stationary tables and seats on adjoining outside space was built and installed by the county park department of the county commission under direction of Rardin and other county commissioners.

A barbecue chicken dinner was served at the close of the program by the City Council to citizens of the community.

Other special guests of the community were County Commissioners Ben Sundy of Delray Beach, Kenneth Foster, Mrs. Paul Rardin, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Roberts, Mrs. C. W. McDonald, Belle Glade Park Supervisor who also assisted with the planning of the playground, J. K. Baker of Belle Glade and former member of the City Council through whose efforts the park came into being.

Gulf Coast Highway Opened To Traffic

ST. PETERSBURG.—Florida transportation history leaped a long step forward late in May when the Gulf Coast Scenic Highway, U. S. 19, was opened to traffic to the heart of St. Petersburg. At the same time, the State Road Department has started construction on the final three-mile link which will cross Central Avenue, the city's main thoroughfare, and connect with the new 15-mile bridge across Tampa Bay, to be opened with a statewide dedication celebration in August.

Thus, for the first time, St. Petersburg and the chain of Florida west coast cities separated by the bay, will be on the direct route of a major trans-continental highway, starting at the Great Lakes and skirting the Gulf of Mexico.

Highway surveys indicate that at least 750,000 automobiles annually will use the new bridge, connecting St. Petersburg with the Florida mainland north of Palmetto and Bradenton.

New Legion Head Is Alachua's Joe Jenkins

ST. PETERSBURG.—Joe C. Jenkins, former State legislator and prominent lawyer of Gainesville, was elected State Commander of the American Legion at the annual convention held at St. Petersburg last week, succeeding Joseph R. Boyd of Hialeah.

Sarasota was selected as the next meeting place.

Other officers elected were Frank Titus, Miami, chaplain; Archie Thomas, Starke, judge advocate; and Eddie Hummer, Hialeah, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Thomas Wright, Homosassa, was elected president of the American Legion Auxiliary, succeeding Mrs. L. S. Marshall, Tallahassee, who was named national executive-committeewoman.

Gospel Singing Is Spreading In Florida

BONIFAY.—They are re-rooting the old time spiritual and gospel music in the panhandle section of Florida and plan to stage another all-night gospel sing on July 4.

Over 10,000 people gathered here for the first sundown to sunup gospel sing staged here a few months ago and the success of that effort encouraged the local Kiwanis Club to sponsor another sing next month.

Leader in the movement is Editor Devane Williams of the Holmes County Advertiser, and it was at his suggestion that the club brought Loy McCormick and the nationally known talent that follows him to Bonifay for all-night sing.

The sing scheduled for July 4 will be broadcast on the network program "Old Campmeeting Time."

The resignation of Harry M. Weir as administrator of the Everglades Memorial Hospital will become effective Aug. 1, according to Albert Fremd, chairman of the hospital board.

Uncle Sam made the bonds you own an even better bargain!

Now your maturing Series E Bonds can earn interest 10 more years at 3%

PRESENT TREASURY REGULATIONS make it possible for you to collect a return of as much as 80% on the Series E Savings Bonds you already own!

For now those Bonds which you invested in 10 years ago can go right on earning interest for ten more years without your doing a thing about it! That is true not only of the Bonds which you have held for ten years, but any other Series E Bonds which you have invested in in the meantime. And any Series E Bonds which you obtain now will also enjoy the extended earning period. They will start earning interest sooner and mature earlier, too, paying 3%, compounded semiannually.

The Bond you got for $18.75 can now pay you $33.67 . . . a $37.50 Bond will be worth $67.34 . . . and so on.

Of course, any Series E Bond may still be redeemed at any time after you have held it for two months. But, like any other form of saving, your Bonds will mean a great deal more to you if you can hold on to them.

Are you one of the millions of Americans who are saving regularly with Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, why not start now? Invest regularly in Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Ask your pay office to save as little as 25c a week for you, or as much as you are able.

If you can save just $5 a week regularly through the Plan, in five years you will have $1,367.90 . . . in 9 years and 8 months, you'll have $2,850.70 . . . and in 19 years and 8 months, $6,872.45! This Plan is one sure way to save because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it.

So join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work today. Or, if you are self-employed, start the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. It's safe, it's sure, it's automatic. And you will be helping yourself and your country!

If you want to be paid your interest as current income—
invest in 3% Series H

If you want a good, sound investment which pays you your interest by check every six months, ask at your bank about United States Government Series H Bonds. Series H is a new current income Bond available in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on 30 days' notice. Matures in 9 years and 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Series H may be purchased at any bank, annual limit $20,000.

Now even better! Invest more in Savings Bonds!

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The importance of understanding God and man from the standpoint of spiritual causation will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon "God The Only Cause and Creator" will include the following passage from the King James Version of the Bible:

"For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; I am the Lord; and there is none else" (Isaiah 45: 18).

Among the citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read: "Jesus of Nazareth was the most scientific man that ever trod the globe. He plunged beneath the material surface of things, and found the spiritual cause" (313: 23-26).

The Golden Text is from Revelation: "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created" (4:11).
